Q: Who are you?

A: We are some ppl. We create unique sculptures from recycled materials designed for daily use—like sitting, reading, or staying organized. We offer a series of collective performances that bring a social, ecological, and committed approach to the cultural sector.

Q: Why do you do this?

A: The idea is simple: a non-elitist vision where art and culture are practiced anywhere and with everyone. Here, art is not a spectacle for consumption; it is a collective experience. You don't remain a spectator; you become a builder to shape our world with your own hands.

Q: Too utopian, that would never work, dream on.

A: Too hellish, the world we live in right now was never working; keep on living that nightmare. In simple terms: the world as we know it is over, it is just a matter of time—everybody is aware of that. Since nature abhors a vacuum, it is time for us, the people, to get together and finally do something. Together, we take the first steps toward a new world—a world that we build.

Art is dead—or rather, art as you know it never existed. Art pieces have always been assets; artists are merely tools. No proof is needed—just look around—but here is some anyway : File EFTA00841050

This is how art is sold and artists are made.

Act I

Do you know what the top tier of French football is called?

McDonald's is the official sponsor of Ligue 1. Consequently, the league is officially named Ligue 1 McDonald's.

Act II

In an Instagram post, McDonald's announced that it had already donated over 12,000 meals to the cause. According to a translation from Hebrew to English by Business Insider, the company wrote: "McDonald's donated and continues to donate tens of thousands of meals to IDF units, the police, hospitals, residents around the Strip, and all rescue forces. We continue donating thousands of meals daily to our forces across the country, in addition to a 50% discount for soldiers and security forces who come to our branches."

Meanwhile, Israel has ordered a total siege of Gaza, cutting off all access to food, water, fuel, and medicine. (Business Insider, October 13, 2023).

PS: We don't even have to mention their fake food or the overexploitation of resources.

Congratulations France !
Your football league shares the same sponsor as this century's live-streamed genocide.

some ppl organizes Homo sapiens gatherings, where the primary purpose is to come together, acknowledge our societal malfunctions, and discuss the first steps toward building a new world.

This is a long-term process consisting of several gatherings across different age groups and locations throughout the region.

Anatomy of Gathering

How it works

Disclaimer ! We are not claiming to change the world—at least, not immediately.

Think of it as a puzzle, where every gathering is a single piece. In each session, we will perform a "diagnosis," discuss our failures, and brainstorm new ideas.

Every gathering will be documented: location, time, participants, the diagnosis reached, and propositions for These take the form of participatory performances, using visual, audiovisual, and textual supporting materials. Alternatively, they may follow a quiz-like, TV-program format. The core idea is to debate and participate.

Mode of Operation

The Wrongs: The actions you take in your daily life—waking up, going to work, and participating in a system globally run by genocidal, cannibalistic pedophiles.

The Rights: We aren't sure if there are any yet, but let's talk; maybe we can figure something out together.

To protect the world from devastation!

To unite all peoples within our nation!

They convinced you that 2 weeks vacation per year is generous.

That working until you're 65 is normal.

That 40+ hours a week is just "how it is."

They're stealing your life away so they can live theirs.
